

Kick-off Event of the Vienna School of Mathematics

The Vienna School of Mathematics (VSM) is a joint initiative of the doctoral programs in mathematics of the University of Vienna and TU Wien. Its major aim is to promote future-oriented, excellent and autonomous research in the context of doctoral studies. The VSM is targeted at leveraging synergies by generating joint educational structures, creating international visibility, attracting the best doctoral students and integrating them into the local and international research environment.

Kick-off Event of the Vienna School of Mathematics

16 October 2019, 3 pm - 8 pm
